9 KIM BLANDINO,

10 Petitioner,

11 vs.

12 JUDGE ROB BARE, et al.,

13 Respondents.
14

2:17-cv-02379-APG-GWF

15 ORDER

16 Petitioner Blandino has filed a petition for writ of habeas corpus under 28 U.S.C. § 2254. ECF
17 No. 1. With his petition, Blandino is challenging an order issued by a judge in the state district court
18 for Clark County, Nevada, finding Blandino guilty of contempt of court and barring him from being 19 within 25 feet of the judge's courtroom. Having reviewed the petition in accordance with Rule 4 of the 20 Rules Governing Habeas Corpus Cases Under Section 2254, this court concludes that it must dismiss 21 this proceeding for lack of jurisdiction.

22 In order to obtain habeas relief under Section 2254, the petitioner must demonstrate that he is 23 "in custody." 28 U.S.C. 2254(a). The "in custody" requirement is met when a petitioner "is subject
24 to a significant restraint upon his liberty 'not shared by the public generally.'" Wilson v. Belleque, 554
25 F.3d 816, 822 (9th Cir.2009) (quoting Jones v. Cunningham, 371 U.S. 236, 240 (1963)). The state
26 court's order that Blandino not come within 25 feet of a particular state courtroom does not meet the 27 requirement. See Hensley v. Municipal Court, 411 U.S. 345, 351 (1973) ("The custody requirement
28 of the habeas corpus statute is designed to preserve the writ of habeas corpus as a remedy for severe restraints on individual liberty."). And, while the order provides that Blandino could be incarcerated

1 for failing to abide by the restriction, that does not change the result. See Dremann v. Francis, 828 F.2d
2 6, 7 (9th Cir.1987) (holding that potential confinement for failure to pay a fine is considered too
3 speculative to warrant federal habeas corpus protection). Because Blandino is not “in custody” as 4 contemplated by 28 U.S.C. § 2254, this court lacks jurisdiction to grant him habeas relief.

5 IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that this action is DISMISSED for lack of subject matter
6 jurisdiction. The Clerk shall enter judgment accordingly and close this case.

7 IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that a certificate of appealability is DENIED.

8 IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that petitioner’s motion for an order requiring the Nevada
9 Commission on Judicial Discipline to disclose information (ECF No. 3) is DENIED as moot.

10 DATED: October 12, 2017.
